

MANAFARU
MALDIVES

FACTSHEET

An aerial photograph of a tropical resort in the Maldives. The scene features a large, crescent-shaped white sand beach. To the left, a long pier extends into the turquoise water, leading to a cluster of numerous overwater bungalows with thatched roofs. To the right, a lush green island is densely packed with tropical vegetation and several large, open-air buildings with thatched roofs. A small wooden boat is visible in the water near the bottom center. The sky is a clear, vibrant blue with a few wispy clouds.
